

Today we celebrate
ALL SAINTS.

But some Saints are so important for the Church that they have their own special days in the Church year.
See, if you can figure out who they are !

All Saints Sunday

November 2, 2025

Today's lessons:

Daniel 7:1-3, 15-18

At a time when Israel was once again threatened in its existence by more powerful neighbours Daniel's vision serves as a reminder that it is God who rules over history.

Psalm 149

The faithful are praising the Lord because they know: in the end he will prevail.

Ephesians 1:11-23

Paul gives thanks for the faith of the Ephesians whom he addressed as “Saints in Christ” and prays that they continue to grow in faith.

Luke 6:20-31

Jesus makes it clear to his followers that life with him will not be a bed of roses, but promises them God's Kingdom.

Agnus Day

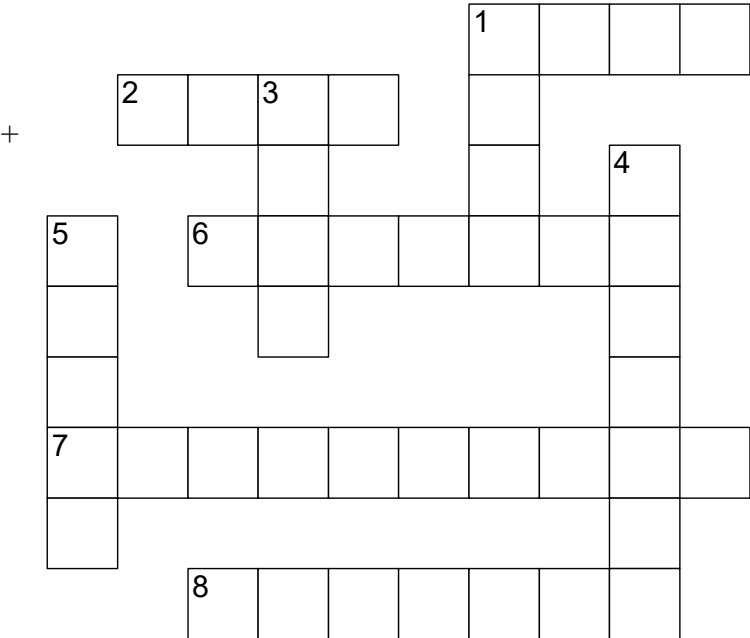

Agnus Day appears with the permission of www.agnusday.org

Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise in the assembly of the saints. Psalm 149:1

THE VISION

Find out what instruments are used in the Bible for the praise of the Lord!

www.CrosswordWeaver.com

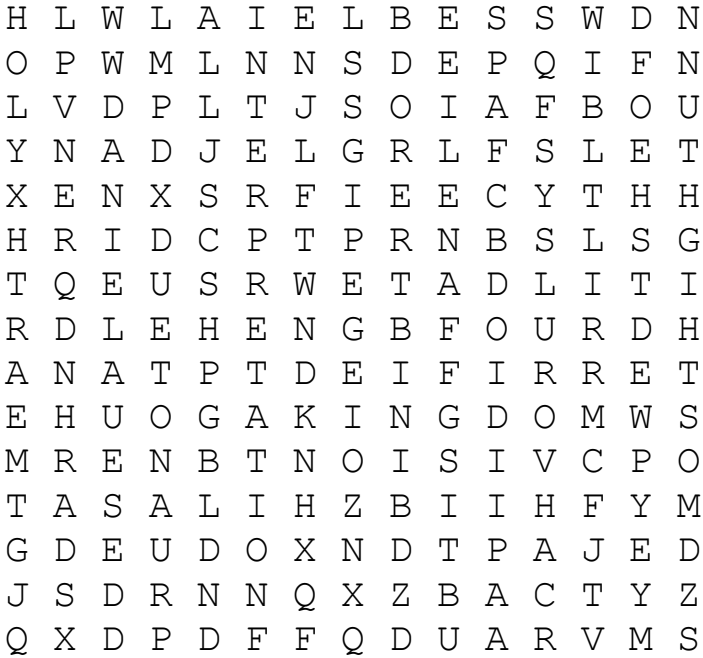

Across

- 1 hollow body-part of an animal, made of skin-like material
- 2 hollow piece of metal that gives a sound when struck
- 6 metal wind instrument, can be quite loud
- 7 small drum with small metallic disks
- 8 metal plates struck together

Down

- 1 plucked stringed instrument, often associated with Ireland
- 3 harp-like instrument, used by ancient Greeks
- 4 instruments that needed guts
- 5 wind instrument made of wood, bamboo or the like

What Daniel sees in his vision is confusing, just like this word-search. But what is clear is that the saints, here called God's holy ones, will in the end receive the kingdom.
