

This is the Hebrew letter 'Mem' (=M), the letter with which begins each verse in the section we read today from Psalm 119.

One of the achievements that Psalm 119:97-104 sees in store for those who study the Bible:

N	D	I	N	M	Y	A	N	A	G	T	H	V	E	M	T	A	T	I

Today's lessons:

Jeremiah 31:27-34

Finally Jeremiah's message turns from "plucking up and breaking down" to "building and planting": God promises Israel a new covenant, where they will indeed be his people and he will be their God.

Psalm 119:97-104

Psalm 119 is the longest Psalm in the Bible, divided in 22 stanzas, one for each letter of the Hebrew alphabet, with 8 lines each. And they all praise the Lord for giving his people his Law!

2 Timothy 3:14-4:5

Lifelong study of the Scriptures and learning from the teachers of the Church is an essential part of Christian life.

Luke 18:1-8

Jesus encourages his disciples who are impatient for the coming of his kingdom to keep on praying; God will not leave them alone in a hostile world.

WISE ADVICE

Even an unjust judge will in the end listen to constant pleading.
How much more will God have an open ear for us,
when we turn to him!
