Twenty-second Sunday
after Pentecost
October 24, 2021

Today's lessons:

Job 42:1-6, 10-17

At the end of Job's story stands his admission that when he questioned God he didn't understand that God is indeed almighty. But because Job now accepts that God is free to do what he wants, God gives him back all he had taken from him.

Psalms 34:1-8 [19-22]

I praise God, because he has listened to my troubles.

Hebrews 7:23-28

Jesus Christ serves as our High Priest, bringing sacrifices for us and speaking to God on our behalf, before his death and afterwards as well.

Mark 10:46-52

On his way to Jerusalem, Jesus is held up by the blind beggar Bartimaeus who recognizes him as the 'Son of David' (= the Messiah). This insight shows his faith. The healed Bartimaeus starts to follow Jesus.

The Happy Ending

Decipher how Job's story ends:

Jesus, our Eternal High Priest

From Hebrews we heard today
how Jesus never stops making intercession for us.
All of the following words or phrases describing his ministry mean more or less the same:

OFREREV _____
AYENERLMPTN _____
SYLWAA _____
UNTIGOCNIN _____
IFORLLAMET _____

THE 911 OF FAITH

Psalm 34 reminds us to turn to God when we are desperate for help (and of course at all other times as well!).
Hopefully you can find the words here without divine intervention!
