Today's lessons:

Genesis 21:8-21

Waiting to get pregnant for so many years, Sarah had told Abraham to have a child with her maid Hagar instead. But now that Isaac has been born, Sarah tries to get rid of that other child, Ishmael. But God protects Ishmael and announces that he will make him a great nation as well, true to his promise.

Psalm 86:1-10, 16-17
Romans 6:1b-11

We are the servants of a merciful Lord. In our baptism we have become a part of Jesus Christ: we have died to sin and have been raised to a new life that is agreeable to God.

Matthew 10:24-39

Jesus warns his disciples that it won't be easy to be his messengers: even in their own families they will make enemies. And yet: God will not forget them and it will be worth all the trouble in the end.

MOTHERS AND SONS

Everybody knows these men from the Bible. But do you know the mother of each of them? Unscramble their names, and the numbered letters reveal God's promise to Ishmael's mother.

Quite similar to what Paul told the Romans, Jesus reminds his disciples that following him is a matter of life or death:
