

What's wrong with Fasting?!

Actually: nothing! But during the fast described in today's lesson from Isaiah, there's a lot going on that's not o.k. If you find all the words below, the remaining letters reveal what God thinks about the fasting of his people.

Today's lessons:

Isaiah 58:1-9a (9b-12)

Psalm 112:1-9 (10)

1 Corinthians 2:1-12 (13-16)

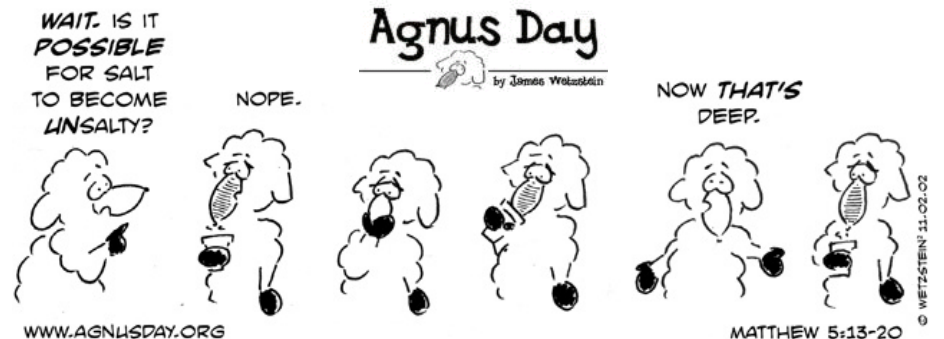

Matthew 5:13-20

God criticises his people for their insincerity: they fast, but they do not share their food with the hungry. That's not how God understands fasting! Only if the people help those in need, God will accept their fast and help them.

God likes generosity and compassion.

When Paul first came to the Corinthians, he was careful not to overwhelm them with rhetoric, but to let the gospel speak for itself. But that does not mean that everything Paul has to say about Jesus Christ will be on preschool level!

Jesus sees his followers in an important role for the world at large: like a pinch of salt is essential for the taste of a whole dish, so the disciples will change how others perceive God and the world. But only if the disciples do their job and live according to God's will.

A special force in society

In today's gospel Jesus talks about a group that is of special importance.

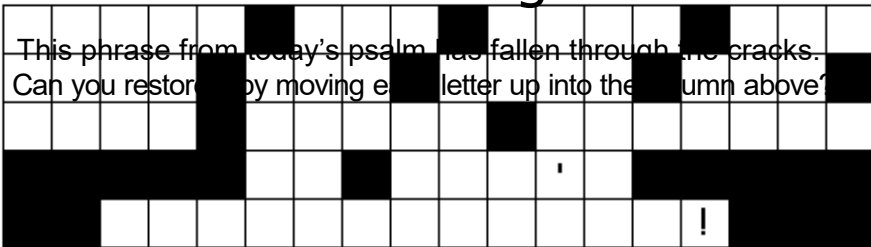

Could it be
THE HOLY FOURTH
ESTATE AREA

THE FOURTH ESTATE: the people and organizations who report the news: journalists as a group.

Or did the editor get it all mixed up and Jesus really said:

THE GOSPEL (R-RATED)

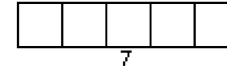

Speaking to the 'mature', the apostle Paul uses lots of words that have to do with learning and knowledge.

Do you know enough to decipher these words?
