Today's lessons:

- Deuteronomy 30:15-20 Before the people of Israel enter the promised land, Moses lays down the Law for them: will they choose to live as God wants them to and have a good life, or will they turn away from God?
- Psalm 119:1-8 This is the first section of in total 22 sections in Psalm 119, one for every letter in the Hebrew alphabet. In each section every verse begins with the same Hebrew letter, in this case the letter aleph א. And every section is about how wonderful God's commandments are!
- 1 Corinthians 3:1-9 Paul tells the Corinthians that they are still behaving like little children, quarrelling and fighting all the time, split into rivalling parties.
- Matthew 5:21-37 Jesus gives his followers his interpretation of God's commandments, contrasting the literal understanding of 'common sense' with his own far more radical view.

Are you being serious?

It's easy to imagine the disciples standing around Jesus with MOUTHS REALLY ROUND, once he has explained this commandment to them:

Happy are they whose way is blameless... (Psalm 119:1)

...and who get to the centre of the maze!

Don't be such a baby!

Babies are cute, of course. But grown-up people that behave like babies are rather embarrassing. The apostle Paul wants the Corinthians to grow up! Can you decipher what he says?
