

The End of Greed

Reading Amos, it seems nothing makes God more angry than a society where making money is all that counts, where Sabbath and other festivals are not kept holy, but are seen as an annoying interruption of business, where the poor cannot afford what they need to survive, and where the merchants tamper with the scales.

Across

www.CrosswordWeaver.com

- 1 shake with fear
- 4 not true
- 5 wreckage
- 6 expression of sadness
- 9 lack of hair
- 11 opposite of rich
- 14 corpses (two words)
- 15 scales
- 16 need to drink

Down

- 2 grief for someone's death
- 3 precious metal
- 4 extreme scarcity of food
- 7 lacking the means to support oneself
- 8 stomp, smash
- 10 coarse fabric
- 12 give away in exchange for money
- 13 fraud

created by Astrid Schlueter, using CrosswordWeaver.

Youth Bulletin

Sixth Sunday
after Pentecost
July 17, 2022

Today's lessons:

Amos 8:1–12

God sends Amos to tell the people of Israel that the end has come: he will no longer tolerate their profit-driven life.

Psalm 52

The rich and powerful are accused of exploitation and fraud. God will take the side of their victims.

Colossians 1:15–28

Jesus Christ is the Lord of all creation, and all of creation comes together in him, reunited with God.

Luke 10:38–42

When Jesus comes to visit Martha and her sister Mary, Martha wants everything to be perfect. But Jesus wants only one thing: that they listen to him.

Agnus Day

by James Woloszewski

Agnus Day appears with the permission of www.agnusday.org

Psalm Raises Serious Accusations

Just like the prophet Amos, Psalm 52 is not mincing words, when criticising those in power.

Find out what exactly is criticised by putting these letter tiles in the right order!

created by Astrid Schlueter, using Puzzlemaker at DiscoverySchool.com

BRANCHES TASTE THERMOTHERAPY.

Now what has that to do with Mary and Martha?!

To find out, you have to rearrange the letters:

Created by Astrid Schlueter using Anagram Genius(tm) version 9
No plants were harmed in the making of this puzzle.

All In One

Everything was created in Jesus Christ, we read in the Letter to the Colossians.
And even more:

20 22 1 2 9 14
created by Astrid Schlueter, using Puzzlemaker at DiscoverySchool.com