Today's lessons:

- Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-7 Adam and Eve fall for the sweet talking of the serpent instead of trusting God's word. They want to be like God, but that is how sin begins: by putting ourselves in God's place.
- Psalms 32 If we own up to the wrong we've done, God will forgive us.
- Romans 5:12-19 Just like through one person, Adam, sin came into the world and made us all sinners, so we are all made righteous through Jesus Christ, the one person without sin.
- Matthew 4:1-11 The devil tempts Jesus to use his power for his own advantage, but Jesus fights him off with the Word of God (precisely: with three quotations from Deuteronomy).

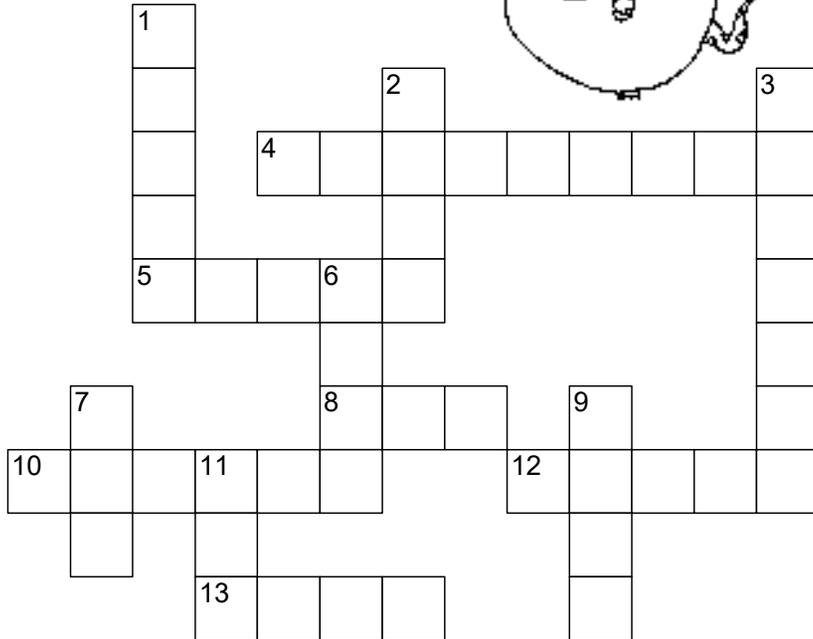

"Look, the borderline mouse!"

Not quite the animal we're looking for in today's psalm! But if you rearrange the letters you might come up with the right ones (but don't turn into one of them !):
