

The Fox and the Hen

Our Gospel today sounds almost like a fable: improbable as it may seem, in this case the chicken wins in the end!

Today's lessons:

Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18

Abram has been promised by God to have many descendants. But after years of marriage, Abram and his wife still have no children, and Abram has started to question God's trustworthiness. So God renews his promise and gives Abram a sign.

Psalms 27

Under God's protection you need to fear nothing and nobody!

Philippians 3:17-4:1

The apostle Paul is in prison – because of his faith! Still, he wants the Philippians rather to follow his example than to shy away from the cross of Christ. Earthly authorities may have temporarily power over them, but in the end it's Jesus Christ who is their Lord.

Luke 13:31-35

When warned that King Herod is plotting to kill him, Jesus refuses to avoid Jerusalem and save his life, because that is exactly his plan from the beginning: to get himself killed in Jerusalem.
