The Holy Trinity

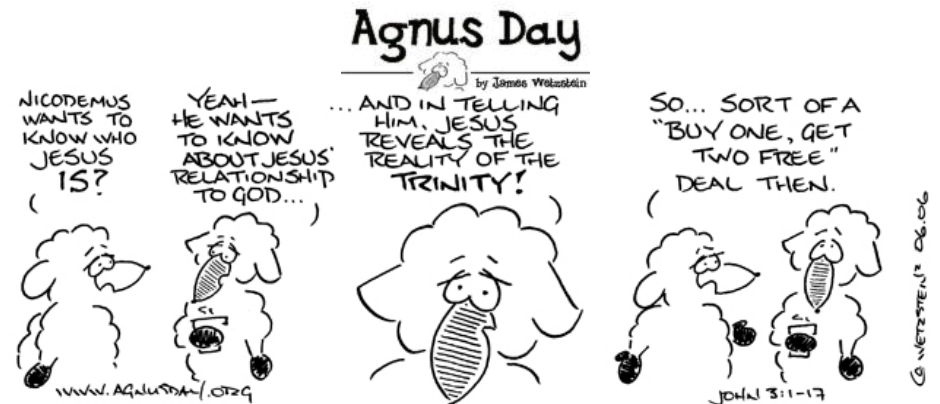

May 30, 2021

Symbol of the Trinity

Today's lessons:

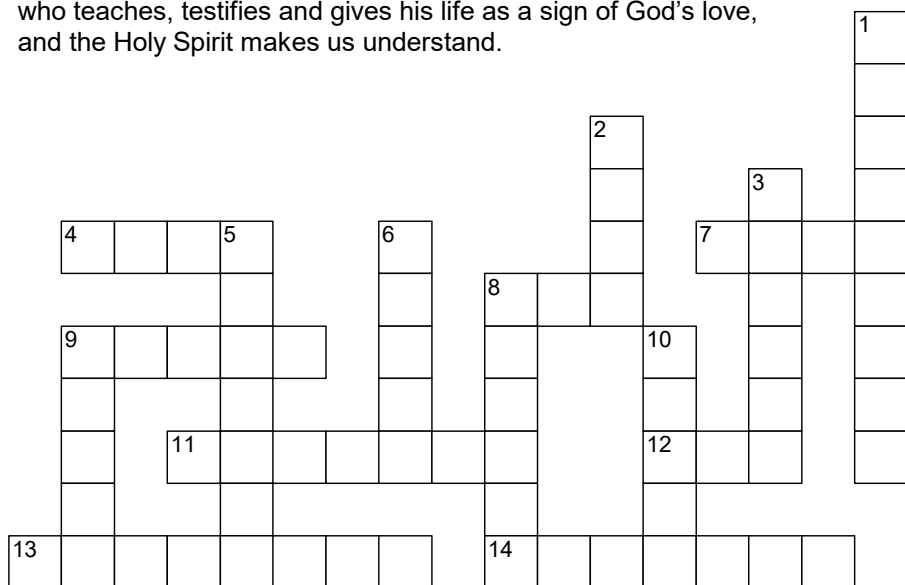

- Isaiah 6:1-8 While he is in the Temple, the prophet Isaiah has a vision: he sees God on his throne with seraphs (a special kind of angels) surrounding him. In the presence of God Isaiah becomes aware of God's holiness and of his own sinfulness, but a seraph cleanses him with a burning coal. Now Isaiah is ready for his mission as a prophet!
- Psalm 29 The voice of God (an expression of his presence) is overwhelming.
- Romans 8:12-17 The apostle Paul reminds us that we owe our life to the Holy Trinity: the Father has made us his children, and the Holy Spirit reassures us that we can call God our Father, being one with Jesus Christ.
- John 3:1-17 Nicodemus, a Jewish leader, comes to Jesus one night because he wants to figure out how Jesus is able to do all his mighty deeds. But Jesus tells him that only those who have been born anew as God's children can really understand him.

Teamwork

Jesus explains to Nicodemus how all three persons of the Holy Trinity are involved in the salvation of the world:
 the Father sent the Son,
 who teaches, testifies and gives his life as a sign of God's love,
 and the Holy Spirit makes us understand.
