Fourteenth Sunday

after Pentecost

August 25, 2024

Today's lessons:

1 Kings 8 (excerpts) King Solomon has built a temple in Jerusalem as a house for the Lord. With a prayer he invites him to move in and stay.

Psalms 84 The house of God is a good place to be; pilgrims come from far away, and even the birds build their nest close to the altar.

Ephesians 6:10-20 Armor yourself against evil by holding on tight to what is good: truth, righteousness, peace, faith, salvation and the Word of God.

John 6:56-69 When Jesus makes it clear to his followers that they will have to eat his flesh and drink his blood, many can't stand that and leave. But the Twelve stay.

Gods dwelling place

Solomon has built a beautiful house for God, ready to move in. And yet the king is aware that there is a problem, as this line from his prayer shows.

If you put these letter tiles in the right order, you'll see it, too.

Prepare for the Fight!

On our own, we easily fall victim to evil. But God has given us all we need to arm ourselves. Can you figure out the pieces of armor the Letter to the Ephesians mentions?
