Today's lessons:

2 Kings 5:1-14

A foreign general named Naaman comes to the prophet Elisha because he is suffering from leprosy. Elisha tells him to wash in the Jordan. At first the general is disappointed that he has come all the way just to take a bath. His servants have to remind him that it's not important how special a treatment is, but that it helps.

Psalm 30

A thanksgiving for healing.

Galatians 6:(1-6) 7-16

At the end of his Letter to the Galatians, the apostle Paul makes once more his point: not fulfilling the Law makes all the difference, but the cross of Jesus Christ does!

Luke 10:1-11, 16-20

Jesus sends out 70 disciples two by two to spread the word that the kingdom of God has come near.

As Simple As That

It's hard to believe for Naaman that his healing should be neither spectacular nor difficult — just as it is hard for some people to believe that the simple act of Baptism should bring salvation. All that is necessary, you'll discover, once you've found the words below.
