

Be careful what you wish for

As a prize for her dance King Herod has promised his daughter whatever she might wish for. This is what she came up with:

THE JOB HOPES AND THAT THIEF

But really Herod's daughter is not asking for a thief, but for a prophet, as you'll find out, if you put the letters in the right order:

THE KING OF GLORY

Our psalm today praises God for establishing order in the midst of chaos and his rule as the King of all creation.

If you manage to bring order to the chaos of these letter tiles, they reveal a line from that psalm.

The Ark of the Covenant

The Ark of the Covenant is brought to Jerusalem in a festive procession, with music and dancing, and King David himself leading the crowd. Can you find in this crowd the words from today's Old Testament lesson?
