Today's lessons:

Isaiah 1:1, 10-20

God speaks through the prophet Isaiah to the rulers and the people of Israel. In his eyes they are no better than the sinful people of Sodom and Gomorrah, and their offerings and prayers don't make things better as long as they don't practise social justice.

Psalms 50:1-8, 22-23

Offerings must be brought in thanksgiving, not as a kind of bribe!

Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16

What faith is, we learn from the examples of faith that we find in the Old Testament.

Luke 12:32-40

Jesus compares his future return to the unexpected homecoming of a master; will his household be ready for him?

Prophets

Our Old Testament lesson today is a reading from the book of Isaiah, the longest and best-known of the biblical books named after a prophet. But there are others...

Can you find them?!
